

Thank you.

Two small words
for such a big feeling.

path with their children that also have Cockayne Syndrome. A trip of a lifetime? because of your support the financial aspect of this trip was not a huge concern, as it typically would be.

Thank you for being on our team!

DP
Amy & Cliff
Spinn

Your kindness

really made a difference...

Your thoughtfulness really touched ^{our} my heart...

The gratitude ^{we} feel really can't be put into words.

This card really captures it. We are so honored & humbled by your generosity.

We are so thankful for our children's our life we have built together. And your generosity will help us in so many ways to create more wonderful memories & most importantly have fun!

Hope you enjoy these pictures of Lucas' home, two of them are from our recent trip to England to meet more families that are facing the same

