Thank you for your support.

Thank you, Vincent

With your help, Direct Relief is sending critical medical materials and supplies to help vulnerable people throughout the United States and in 70 countries across the world overcome severe health challenges. You can feel confident that, through your donation, the right aid is devoted to the right places and will help those who need it most.

Thank you again for your generosity.

Regards,
The Direct Relief Team

You may be able to double your donation!

Thanks to the generosity of corporate supporters, you may be able to double or triple your donation through an Employee Matching Gift Program. Many employers will also match gifts given by retirees, spouses, and Board members. See if your gift is eligible by visiting our matching gifts page.
